Entity's acting workshops are open to anyone over 18 with a good command of English. Entity is regularly invited to perform at FEATS (the Festival of European Anglophone Theatrical Societies), and has won numerous awards.

May

Tuesday 1 May
May Day

Tuesday 1 May, 13:00
May Day Event: Walk to Visit to Waldwirtschaft

When: Tue 1 May, 13:00

Where: Waldwirtschaft, Georg-Kalb-Str. 3, Großhesselohe

Transit Info:  U3 to Thalkirchen

Meeting Point: On the U-Bahn platform—the end of the platform where the front end of any train coming from Marienplatz stops.

Description: Walk to the Waldwirtschaft in Großhesselohe and hopefully meet some more GEAers who decide to go there a different way.

Alternatives for getting back:

- Walk back to Thalkirchen and take the U3

- Walk to Pullach (still Zone 1) and take the S7. (In 2016, to avoid the rain, we stopped in Pullach to enjoy the May Day events there before returning to the city.)
- Walk to Buchenhain (about 1 hour) and take S-Bahn from there back home. (N.B.: Buchenhain is one stop outside Zone 1, the Innenraum. Those who have passes for Zone 1 will need to buy a Kurzstrecke ticket or stamp one strip on a strip ticket before leaving Buchenhain.)
- Walk to Großhesselohe Isartalbahn and take the S7.

*All subject to weather!***

Registration: Not required, but it would be nice to tell Jim that you're coming, so that he'll know who to watch out for.

Description: Munich Walking Book Group – The Alternative Book Group

Have you ever thought of joining a book club but been put off by the idea of being cooped up with a group of people in a strange house and possibly having in return to host such a gathering yourself? Or maybe you are reluctant because your experience tells you that one or two people tend to dominate the discussions or because you do not want to commit yourself to regular attendance?

Then the Munich English Walking Book Group (The Alternative Book Group) may be the answer for you.

From the meeting point, we shall then walk through the English Garden, whatever the weather, for about one hour and a half. There will be pauses but no stops.

Walking in small groups of 4 or 5 will give everyone a chance to speak or give an opinion – and of course you are not bound to any particular group of people and movement between groups is welcomed and encouraged.

There will be no pre-registration and this will be a 'turn up and go' event.

The only commitment is that everyone taking part has read the chosen book.

Hope that you can join us.
