

GEA Programme No. 441 for October 2018

Elisabeth Zimmermann†

Sad news for all who knew Elisabeth Zimmermann.

On August 24th, after a long battle with cancer she finally was relieved by passing peacefully and without pain in the palliative station of Großhadern.

Her family put her to final rest last week September 12th, in a lovely spot in Eichenau cemetery under a big oak tree.

We will miss her with her bubbly personality and her travel reports.

Elisabeth's Grave

Over the many years she has been a good friend to many of us who also met outside the different GEA events.

Our sincere condolences to her family.

For those who want to send their own condolences to her sister, the mail address is available on request.

Summer (Daylight Saving) Time Ends (MAYBE)

The recent online poll by the EU made clear that most people don't want a time change every year. However, what Germany is going to do is unclear: Will it stay on Summer Time or on Standard Time? Watch television and newspapers for information on whether there will be a time change this year or not.

If there is a time change this year, move your clocks back one hour (preferably before you go to bed on Saturday evening). Officially, at 03:00, clocks move back to 02:00. This is the end of Summer (Daylight Saving) Time in Germany and much of Europe. In North America, Daylight Saving Time will continue for another week, until Sunday 2 November.

Wednesday 31 October

Halloween and Reformation Day

Once again no Bonfire Night this year! 🙄

We are sorry, but this year again there will be no Bonfire Night. Our long-time organizer, Sue Turner, is doing it at her new home in Cyprus – Hi over there! – and there has been no successor. In addition, the farmer whose field we had permission to use has had a change of heart and is no longer willing to let us use his field for the bonfire.

So, please do not go out to Mariabrunn to try to make a bonfire. And please also tell other bonfire goers of the past whom you know, as they might not have read this note.

The future?

It would need a new organizer and a new location, so if there is any volunteer, please go ahead for next year!

November

Thursday 1 November
All Saints' Day

Monday 5 November
Guy Fawkes Bonfire Night

Traditionally, the GEA has held a Bonfire Night on or near Guy Fawkes Day to celebrate the day.

We are sorry, but this year again there will be no Bonfire Night. 🙁 Our long-time organizer, Sue Turner, is doing it at her new home in Cyprus – Hi over there! – and there has been no successor. In addition, the farmer whose field we had permission to use has had a change of heart and is no longer willing to let us use his field for the bonfire.

So, please do not go out to Mariabrunn to try to make a bonfire. And please also tell other bonfire goers of the past whom you know, as they might not have read this note.

The future? It would require a new organizer and a new location. If anyone wants to volunteer, we'd be delighted to hear from you!

Saturday 10 November, 14:15
Walk & Talk in English

When: Sat 10 Nov, 14:15 – 16:00 (Note: NOT the usual last Saturday of the month.)

Where: behind Tambosi, Odeonsplatz

Transit Info:  U3/4/5/6 to Odeonsplatz
 StadtBus 100 to Odeonsplatz

Meeting Point: Under the Colonnade behind Tambosi on Odeonsplatz at 14:15 for a start at 14:30.

Description: Munich Walking Book Group – The Alternative Book Group

Have you ever thought of joining a book club but been put off by the idea of being cooped up with a group of people in a strange house and possibly having in return to host such a gathering yourself? Or maybe you are reluctant because your experience tells you that one or two people tend to dominate the discussions or because you do not want to commit yourself to regular attendance?

Then the Munich English Walking Book Group (The Alternative Book Group) may be the answer for you.

From the meeting point, we shall then walk through the English Garden, whatever the weather, for about one hour and a half. There will be pauses but no stops.

Walking in small groups of 4 or 5 will give everyone a chance to speak or give an opinion – and of course you are not bound to any particular group of people and movement between groups is welcomed and encouraged.

There will be no pre-registration and this will be a 'turn up and go' event.

The only commitment is that everyone taking part has read the chosen book.

Hope that you can join us.

This will be our last book for 2018.

Book: Trumpet by Jackie Kay

The book is available through bookshops or via on line retailers. It is also available as an E-book.

Tip: Try www.amazon.co.uk for second hand copies.

Notes: Some on-line retailers do not indicate a delivery time before order confirmation.

Some on-line retailers are offering 7-10 days delivery. However, experience indicates that they often deliver much more quickly.

If ordering on-line, check and allow enough time for delivery and subsequent reading of the book in comfort.

Host this Month: Erwin & Barbara Rosenfeld

Organiser: John, John@GEA-MUC.de, 6975 8880

Sunday 11 November
St. Martin's Day

Sunday 18 November
National Day of Mourning (Volkstrauertag)

Sunday 25 November
Sunday of the Dead (Totensonntag)
