Description: Munich Walking Book Group – The Alternative Book Group

Have you ever thought of joining a book club but been put off by the idea of being cooped up with a group of people in a strange house and possibly having in return to host such a gathering yourself? Or maybe you are reluctant because your experience tells you that one or two people tend to dominate the discussions or because you do not want to commit yourself to regular attendance?

Then the Munich English Walking Book Group (The Alternative Book Group) may be the answer for you.

From the meeting point, we shall then walk through the English Garden, whatever the weather, for about one hour and a half. There will be pauses but no stops. Walking in small groups of 4 or 5 will give everyone a chance to speak or give an opinion – and of course you are not bound to any particular group of people and movement between groups is welcomed and encouraged.

There will be no pre-registration and this will be a ‘turn up and go’ event.

The only commitment is that everyone taking part has read the chosen book.

Hope that you can join us.

Book: The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd

The book is available through bookshops or via on line retailers. It is also available as an E-book. Tip: Try www.amazon.co.uk for second hand copies.
